RESULTS

Summary judgment achieved in first-party coverage lawsuit.

Insurance Services – Coverage & Bad Faith Litigation

November 1, 2022

We won summary judgment in the U.S.D.C. for the Middle District of Florida in a first-party coverage case challenging the prompt notice of an insurance claim. The plaintiff alleged extensive damage to the insured premises, including the alleged need to tear out and access the cast iron plumbing for its full replacement following a toilet overflow at the property. The plaintiff failed to report the loss for 20 months following the alleged date of loss.

Insurance Coverage Case Dismissed

Insurance Services – Coverage & Bad Faith Litigation

August 25, 2016

In an insurance coverage and bad faith case, Marshall Dennehey attorneys obtained a dismissal of a declaratory judgment action seeking $750,000 in business income damages. The court granted the motion to dismiss, agreeing with the defendant's argument that the loss was not covered pursuant to a sewer water exclusion contained in the insurance policy. The plaintiff argued the sewer water exclusion did not apply to the business income coverage.

No Breach of Umbrella Policy in this Insurance Coverage Case

Insurance Services – Coverage & Bad Faith Litigation

April 21, 2016

Obtained final summary judgment in favor of a major insurance carrier. The plaintiffs filed suit for breach of an umbrella policy after their claim for $1 million in uninsured motorist benefits was denied because the plaintiffs failed to maintain the required underlying auto insurance.
