OVERVIEW

Jonathan is a member of the firm's Fraud and Special Investigation Unit (SIU) practice group. His practice is dedicated to large loss and medical provider fraud and has litigated and filed affirmative litigation recovery actions, as well as RICO, in many states as his practice is national. His practice also includes insurance coverage disputes, representing insurance carriers across multiple states for the purposes of SIU investigation and litigation, bad faith litigation, and general defense litigation. Jonathan has negotiated on behalf of the insurance industry his entire career as he seeks new ways to solve complex problems. He routinely advises clients on initiatives to modernize and administrate automobile first-party medical claims. In addition, he has taken Examinations Under Oath in private passenger auto, commercial and first party property matters throughout the country. He has broad and extensive experience in New Jersey Personal Injury Protection (PIP) litigation and appears regularly before the courts and administrative bodies.

Before joining Marshall Dennehey, he was claim litigation counsel for a national insurance carrier where he handled PIP disputes, coverage matters, and automobile and fire claim litigation. There, Jonathan led review teams in assessing and evaluating ethics, best practices, and continuous improvement within national staff counsel operations.

Jonathan is admitted to practice in New Jersey, the District of Columbia, Michigan and the United States Supreme Court. He is a member of the Asian Pacific American Lawyers Association of New Jersey (APALA-NJ), National Filipino American Lawyers Association (NFALA), Camden County Bar Association and is currently a member of the New Jersey Superior Court, Camden Vicinage, Diversity, Inclusion & Community Engagement Committee (DI&CE).

Additionally, Jonathan earned his Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriter (CPCU), Associate in Insurance Services (AIS), and Associate in Personal Insurance (API) designations from the American Institute of Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriters (The Institutes).

Jonathan received his B.A. and B.S. from the University of Pittsburgh and earned his J.D. from Rutgers University School of Law – Camden. He was Law Clerk to the Honorable Ronald J. Freeman, J.S.C. (ret.) in the civil division of the New Jersey Superior Court, Camden Vicinage.
