OVERVIEW

Randy is a member of the Professional Liability Department where he focuses his practice on representing and defending clients in insurance coverage, first party property claims and bad faith litigation.

Randy began his legal career as an associate attorney at one of Florida's largest Plaintiff firms working in the firm's Complex Commercial Litigation Group where he acquired the foundational knowledge required to understand the ins and outs of civil litigation. Following his time working on the Plaintiff's side, Randy decided to switch gears and join a defense firm where he handled and managed hundreds of suits that encompassed a wide range of insurance issues.

Randy earned his bachelor's degree in English at Atlantic Union College in Massachusetts and his juris doctor from Barry University's Dwayne O. Andreas School of Law in Orlando. Outside the practice of law, Randy enjoys spending time with his family, cheering on his son's high school sports teams, traveling and taking walks with his wife and their two dogs.

Property Litigation

July 1, 2024

On September 10, 2017, Hurricane Irma purportedly damaged the roof and interior of the Viscas' home. Approximately 29 months later, the Viscas filed a claim for damages with Security First.

The trial court incorrectly entered directed verdict for the insurer.

Property Litigation

June 1, 2024

Following a jury trial, the circuit court entered a directed verdict for the insurer and set aside the jury's verdict, concluding the insured failed to provide the insurer with prompt notice of the loss.
