OVERVIEW

Maura is an associate handling matters involving personal injury protection (PIP) benefits, special investigations (SIU), fraud, commercial trucking litigation, NY labor law, automobile liability, bodily injury and general liability.

Prior to joining Marshall Dennehey, Maura served as a law clerk to the Honorable Michael R. Ostrowski. She received her juris doctor from Drexel University Kline School of Law, where she participated in the Arbitration Competition Club, the American Constitution Society and Criminal Expungement Pro Bono. During law school, she gained practical experience as a summer law clerk for two local litigation firms, and the Defender's Association of Philadelphia.

Maura received her undergraduate degree from Pennsylvania State University, where she studied Supply Chain and Management. Prior to law school, Maura worked as a supply chain analyst for Boeing and Comcast.

Maura is admitted to practice in the states of New Jersey and New York.
