OVERVIEW

Mary is a member of the Professional Liability Department where she concentrates her practice on the defense of employment-related claims, including, but not limited to allegations of discrimination, violation of employment-related statutes, wrongful discharge, and breach of contract. Prior to joining Marshall Dennehey, Mary worked as an associate attorney in a boutique law firm handling a wide variety of civil litigation matters.

Mary received her juris doctor in 2011 from Rutgers School of Law – Camden where she participated in the Domestic Violence and Advanced Domestic Violence Clinics, assisting individuals in obtaining domestic violence restraining orders. After law school, Mary served as a Superior Court of New Jersey judicial law clerk to The Honorable David W. Morgan, J.S.C., in Salem and Gloucester Counties. During her clerkship, Mary served as a mediator for Small Claims and Special Civil Part cases.

A graduate of Pennsylvania State University, University Park, Mary received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science in 2008.

Mary is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, the U.S. Court of Appeals Third Circuit, the U.S. District Court Eastern District of Pennsylvania, the U.S. District Court of New Jersey and the U.S. Tax Court.
