OVERVIEW

Jason is a member of the Health Care Department and focuses his practice on medical malpractice defense. His litigation practice focuses on representing hospitals, physicians and nursing home/extended care facilities in all manner of health care liability matters. Jason also has experience in product liability, travel law and workers' compensation litigation. He has argued before numerous appellate courts throughout Ohio.

Prior to practicing law, Jason had a successful career in sports marketing and communications. As a member of the Cleveland Browns Trust, he worked to return the Browns to the National Football League. After working for a firm specializing in NASCAR sponsorship and an arena developer, Jason focused on internet development and marketing in Illinois.

Jason is an alumnus of Ohio University where he served as president of his senior class. He went on to receive his juris doctor from Cleveland-Marshall College of Law in 2004. In 2010, Jason was recognized as a Rising Star in medical malpractice defense litigation. His active community involvement has also included serving as the Secretary of the Charter Commission for the city of University Heights, Ohio.

Jason is licensed to practice in Ohio and Kentucky.
