

BENJAMIN K. DURSTEIN

SHAREHOLDER

AREAS OF PRACTICE

Workers' Compensation

CONTACT INFO

(302) 552-4341
BKDurstein@mdwccg.com

1 Righter Parkway
Suite 301
Wilmington, DE 19803

ADMISSIONS

Delaware
2013

EDUCATION

Widener University School of Law
(J.D., cum laude, 2012)

University of Delaware (B.A., 2007)

OVERVIEW

As a member of the Workers' Compensation Department, Ben represents employers, insurance carriers and third-party administrators in defense of workers' compensation claims before the Industrial Accident Board and Delaware courts.

Ben earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Delaware in 2007, and went on to receive his juris doctor from Widener University School of Law in 2012. After law school, he served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable James T. Vaughn, Jr., who was then President Judge of the Delaware Superior Court.

Ben is a member of Delaware Claims Association, Delaware State Bar Association Workers' Compensation Section and the Randy J. Holland Delaware Workers' Compensation American Inn of Court. He is admitted to practice in the State of Delaware.

HONORS & AWARDS

The Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch®, Workers' Compensation
Law – Employers
2024-2025

Top Lawyer, Workers'
Compensation Employer Defense,
Delaware Today Magazine
November 2022

ASSOCIATIONS & MEMBERSHIPS

Delaware Claims Association

Delaware State Bar Association;
member, Workers' Compensation
Section

Randy J. Holland Delaware
Workers' Compensation American
Inn of Court

YEAR JOINED

2017

THOUGHT LEADERSHIP

Industrial Accident Board Denies EMT's Motion to Amend Injury Date, Citing Statute of Limitations and Inexcusable Neglect

Wilmington
Workers' Compensation
July 1, 2025

The Industrial Accident Board dismissed a workers' compensation claim after determining that the claimant's attempt to amend the alleged date of injury was both untimely and the result of inexcusable neglect. What's Hot in Workers' Comp, Vol. 29, No.

Petition to terminate total disability benefits for claimant who had light-duty restrictions that could not be accommodated denied; claimant had reasonable expectation of returning to pre-injury job with same employer when his condition improved.

Wilmington
Workers' Compensation
February 1, 2025

On November 4, 2023, the claimant injured his left knee in a compensable work accident that required surgery to his patella. He had to switch doctors after his first treating surgeon passed away. What's Hot in Workers' Comp, Vol. 29, No.

Delaware Superior Court reverses Industrial Accident Board decision, holding the Board erred as a matter of law and abused its discretion when it awarded compensation to a claimant whose intoxication proximately caused a motor vehicle accident.

Wilmington
Workers' Compensation
January 1, 2025

On June 8, 2021, at approximately 4 a.m., Mr. Willis was involved in single-vehicle accident when his work truck struck a guardrail. What's Hot in Workers' Comp, Vol. 29, No.

TOP 10 DEVELOPMENTS IN DELAWARE WORKERS' COMPENSATION IN 2024

Wilmington
Workers' Compensation
December 1, 2024

1. The Delaware Supreme Court affirmed an Industrial Accident Board decision that concluded that a COVID-19 workplace exposure at a poultry processing plant did not qualify as a compensable occupational disease. What's Hot in Workers' Comp, Vol. 28, No.

Petition for compensability of post-concussion syndrome treatment granted. Petition to terminate total disability benefits, alleging ability to return to work w/restrictions and forfeited right to benefits for refusing reasonable medical treatment, denied

Wilmington
Workers' Compensation
November 1, 2024

Ms. Makowski injured her low back, neck, shoulder, head/brain in a work-related motor vehicle accident on January 22, 2009, and remained on total disability benefits. The Industrial Accident Board later determined that Ms. What's Hot in Workers' Comp, Vol. 28, No.

CLASSES/SEMINARS TAUGHT

Ethics and the Duty to the Tribunal and Opposing Counsel, panelist, Delaware State Bar Association and the Industrial Accident Board Workers' Compensation Seminar 2023, Wilmington, Delaware, May 2, 2023

Strategies to Limit Exposure and Minimize Risk, Marshall Dennehey Workers' Compensation Seminar, October 27, 2022

Do's and Don'ts in the Practice of Workers Compensation, Delaware State Bar Association William D. Rimmer Workers' Compensation Seminar 2022, Wilmington, Delaware, May 3, 2022

Are You Coming or Going – Do You Know Your Course and Scope?, Marshall Dennehey webinar, October 26, 2020

RESULTS

DELAWARE SUPREME COURT AFFIRMS THE DECISIONS OF THE IAB AND SUPERIOR COURT, HOLDING THAT AN EMPLOYER CORRECTLY PAID FOR KETAMINE INFUSION TREATMENT IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE DELAWARE FEE SCHEDULE

Workers' Compensation

March 21, 2024

The claimant injured her right wrist in 2016 while working as a teacher for the State. Her injury eventually developed into complex regional pain syndrome (CRPS) involving multiple extremities. From 2017 to 2021, the State paid for 23 ketamine infusion treatments to treat the claimant's CRPS. The treatment was rendered by an out-of-state provider. In 2019, the State contracted with a new bill-review company that paid substantially lower amounts than was previously paid for the same treatment.

Industrial Accident Board grants motion for reimbursement.

Workers' Compensation

November 1, 2022

We succeeded in having the Industrial Accident Board grant reimbursement of an amount of total disability benefits tendered that were offset by contemporaneous short-term disability payments. The Board denied the claimant's motion to compel production of paystubs that he claimed were required to determine the appropriate offset amount, if any. The Board reasoned that the information provided was sufficient to calculate the overpayment amount and that the Fair Labor Standards Act did not require the pay records be kept in any particular form.

Defense prevails before the Industrial Accident Board.

Workers' Compensation

December 2, 2021

The claimant alleged several injuries. The Board denied the claimant's petition for additional compensation due on all counts, and granted the employer's petition for review to terminate total disability benefits. Specifically, the Board concluded that (1) a proposed left ankle reconstruction surgery was not reasonable and necessary, (2) there was insufficient evidence to prove a compensable left knee injury, (3) there was insufficient evidence to prove a compensable lumbar spine injury and (4) the claimant was capable of unrestricted return to work.

Successful defense of workers' compensation case before the Delaware Supreme Court.

Workers' Compensation

March 1, 2020

In its order, the Supreme Court affirmed a decision of the Superior Court that had affirmed a Board decision regarding the compensability of travel expenses for trips to and from medical appointments. The claimant had petitioned for parking and toll expenses incurred during her trips to visit a doctor at University of Pennsylvania from her residence in Dover, Delaware.