OVERVIEW

Lisa is an associate in the Casualty Department focusing on the defense of toxic tort and general liability matters. Prior to joining the firm, Lisa spent time at a small defense firm that handled mostly asbestos litigation, toxic torts/hazardous substances, and general liability.

Lisa received her Bachelor's degree from Elon University in 2002 and her juris doctor from Widener University School of Law in 2005. During her time at Widener, Lisa was a member of the Moot Court Honor Society and the Moe Levine Trial Advocacy Honor Society. As a member of the Moot Court Honor Society, she was selected to compete in Tulane University's National Sports and Entertainment Law Competition, which she and her partners championed. In 2005, Lisa won first place in Widener Law School's Hugh B. Pierce Trial Advocacy Competition.

Upon completion of law school, Lisa served as a Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable Lawrence E. Wood of the Chester County Court of Common Pleas in West Chester, PA. She went on to practice in various fields of civil litigation including domestic law and personal injury law.

Lisa is a member of the American Bar and Delaware State Bar Associations. She is also a presenter for the National Business Institute's Continuing Legal Education Program and has been appointed pro bono in several Delaware Family Court matters.
