OVERVIEW

Brian is a member of the Casualty Department and focuses his practice primarily on auto and premises liability. He graduated from Seton Hall University with a B.A. in Political Science. Subsequently, Brian earned his J.D. from Pace University School of Law in 2016.

During law school, Brian was a member of the Pace Law Review and competed in the Prince Evidence Moot Court Competition. Brian also interned with the Morris County Prosecutor's Office and completed a judicial externship with the Honorable Vincent L. Briccetti, a U.S. District Court judge in the Southern District of New York.

Following law school, Brian served as a law clerk to the Honorable Charles E. Powers, Jr., J.S.C. in the Bergen County Superior Court, Civil Division. Prior to joining Marshall Dennehey, Brian was an associate at a general practice law firm where he focused primarily on defending public entities under the New Jersey Tort Claims Act as well as employment litigation matters.
