OVERVIEW

Michael concentrates his practice on defending workers' compensation claims. He represents employers, insurance carriers and third-party administrators, working together with his clients to achieve their desired result.

With more than 20 years of experience, Michael has appeared on behalf of his clients before many local judges, the Workers' Compensation Appeal Board, the Commonwealth Court and the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. In addition to litigating claims, Michael counsels clients on implementing risk management strategies that focus on lowering workers' compensation costs and avoiding liability exposure.

Michael is a member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association's Workers' Compensation Section and the Lackawanna County Bar Association.

RESULTS

Successful Defense of Claim Petition

Workers' Compensation

February 2, 2023

We defended a Claim Petition, successfully proving that a claimant's injury was not work-related. After a thorough investigation and review of the medical records, we were able to present witnesses and evidence that confirmed that the alleged injury had gone unreported and was inconsistent with the mechanism of injury. The Workers' Compensation Judge found our witnesses credible that the claimant did not report his knee condition as work-related.
