OVERVIEW

Michael is a member of our Casualty Department with more than 25 years of experience as a trial attorney and experienced arbiter. He handles personal injury matters in automobile liability, premises and retail liability, and product liability. Michael brings a broad range of experience to his practice that includes bodily injury and workers' compensation, to criminal defense, family law and property damage claims.

Prior to joining the firm, Michael was a member of the Delany Law firm. Highly accomplished in handling personal injury matters, his decisive analyses and years of experience ensures that our clients receive the best representation possible.

In addition to his trial experience, Michael has authored several appellate briefs that affected the outcome of a case in the Pennsylvania Superior Court, and he has completed continuing legal education related to consumer fraud.
