OVERVIEW

Jessica devotes her entire practice to workers' compensation defense litigation, representing insurance carriers, employers and third-party administrators in all manner of workers' compensation claims.

Jessica earned her undergraduate degree in Crime, Law and Justice with a minor in Political Science from Penn State University in 2006, and started law school at Widener University School of Law that same year. During law school, Jessica interned for a solo practitioner in Delaware handling employment and construction matters. She also helped veterans obtain benefits and assisted in legislation reform as part of the Veterans' Law Clinic during law school.

Prior to joining Marshall Dennehey, Jessica worked for respondents' firms in New Jersey.

Lela Eke received a Dismiss Without Prejudice for Lack of Prosecution, after filing a Motion to Dismiss in response to numerous discovery requests that remained unanswered. At the hearing, Petitioner's counsel was unable to provide an explanation for the delay. We argued that keeping the case open to give them more time to respond to our discovery and Motion would be prejudicial against us, and the Court granted our Motion.
