As a member of the Health Care Department, Esad is dedicated to providing his clients with zealous and compassionate representation. Although he has experience in a wide variety of civil litigation, Esad specializes in medical malpractice law, where his streamlined approach to litigation simplifies a complex and nuanced field.

Having clerked for the Honorable Michael N. Beukas in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Esad has intricate knowledge of the litigation process and New Jersey judicial system. He addresses his client's problems methodically; resolving each issue as they arise, and preparing for the future in the process.

Esad was a member of the mock trial team and volunteered for the Domestic Violence and Family Law Clinic while at Seton Hall School of Law. Outside of the office, Esad enjoys painting, gardening, and any outdoor activity where he can get his hands dirty.
