OVERVIEW

Ashley is a member of the Professional Liability Department where she focuses her practice on representing and defending insurance companies in insurance coverage disputes and first-party property litigation.

Prior to joining Marshall Dennehey, Ashley worked at an insurance defense firm where she handled personal injury protection and first party cases. She also has experience working at a consumer protection law firm providing representation to consumers against automobile manufacturers in the states of New York and Florida.

Ashley graduated from the University of Central Florida in 2010 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Legal Studies. She received her juris doctorate from Howard University School of Law.

Outside of the office, Ashley enjoys attending Miami Heat and Miami Dolphins games, traveling and spending time with her nieces and nephews.
