OVERVIEW

Blake Wills is an associate in the firm's Casualty Department where he focuses his practice primarily on representing insurance carriers in litigation, personal injury protection claims and fraud/special investigations.

Blake received his Bachelor of Sciences degree in Security and Risk Analysis with an emphasis on Cybersecurity at Pennsylvania State University with a minor in Information Sciences and Technology. He then earned his J.D. from New York Law School where he graduated cum laude and participated in the Dean's Leadership Council. While at New York Law School, Blake helped create the Organization for Healthy Minds, an organization with a focus on mental health. He also participated in the Sports Law Society and Jewish Law Students Association.

RESULTS

Dismissal Obtained in a Fraudulent Claim Matter

Personal Injury Protection (PIP) Litigation
Fraud/Special Investigation
March 7, 2025

We secured the dismissal of a fraudulent claim against our insurance carrier client in a New York No-Fault/PIP Action. We argued the medical provider's assignor was involved in a staged loss/fraudulent accident in order to obtain No-Fault/PIP benefits. In support of the defense, an SIU affidavit and the transcript of an Examination Under Oath (EUO) from the assignor were submitted, which included facts that casted doubt on the legitimacy of the accident.
