OVERVIEW

Dominic is a member of our Professional Liability Department where he focuses his practice on the defense of architects, engineers, owners, developers, general contractors, construction managers, subcontractors and design professionals. He represents businesses and professionals in construction, insurance, contract, licensure, and liability claims. Dominic handles cases in state and federal court as well as in arbitration from pre-suit through trial.

Prior to his legal career, he spent over three years working as an insurance agent at a major insurance carrier, gaining clear insight into the intricacies of the insurance industry. He has spent the past 25 years in the North Florida area, where he obtained a B.A. in Risk Management and Insurance from Florida State University in 2006.

Outside of the office, Dominic enjoys spending time with his family. He volunteers as a youth soccer coach and is a Board Member with the Live for Today Foundation. He also enjoys cheering on the Jaguars and Seminoles.

Summary Judgment Obtained in a Vehicular Accident Case Involving Disputed Liability

Automobile Liability November 24, 2025

We received summary judgment in a vehicular accident case involving disputed liability. Mr. Thurman was the third vehicle in a three-car collision in which the first vehicle admitted fault and was ticketed. Following the accident, the plaintiffs claimed they were in a fourth vehicle and alleged that Mr. Thurman caused the crash. When the claim was denied—and on the eve of the implementation of tort reform—the plaintiffs filed individual lawsuits against Mr. Thurman alone. We subpoenaed the repair shop that serviced Mr.
