OVERVIEW

Ashley is an associate in the Casualty Department where she focuses her practice on defending construction personal injury, premises liability and automobile liability matters.

She previously practiced as a litigation associate with a local insurance defense firm and brings additional experience from compliance and operations roles in the financial services industry.

She is active in the American Bar Association's Business Law Section, where she was recently selected as a Business Law Fellow for 2025-2027. Ashley additionally serves as Director of DEI Initiatives for the Young Lawyer's Committee, vice-chair to the 2LGBTQIA+ Network subcommittee for DEI and, vice-chair to the Insurance subcommittee for Business Bankruptcy.

She is equally active in the Pennsylvania Bar Association where she is a Zone 2 Co-Chair for the Young Lawyers Division and serves as a voting Pennsylvania Delegate to the Young Lawyers Assembly for the ABA. In 2023, Ashley was awarded the Pennsylvania Bar Association's Professor Louis Del Duca Memorial Award which honors students from Pennsylvania's ABA-approved law schools who demonstrate academic excellence, especially in courses related to business law.

Ashley is a graduate of the University of Maryland and earned her J.D. from Widener University Commonwealth Law School, where she also received a Business Advising Certificate.
