OVERVIEW

Andrew has been practicing workers' compensation law in Pennsylvania since 2014, representing employers and workers' compensation carriers before Workers' Compensation Judges, the Workers' Compensation Appeal Board, and Pennsylvania Commonwealth and Supreme Courts.

Andrew has represented a broad range of employers—from small businesses to large corporations—across industries such as manufacturing, retail, and landscaping, as well as public sector entities, in matters involving workers' compensation and the Heart and Lung Act. He has also delivered client-focused presentations on various workers' compensation topics, including legal developments and case law updates, helping organizations stay informed and compliant with evolving regulations.
