OVERVIEW

Jared is a member of the Professional Liability Department, where he focuses his practice on the defense of professionals, contractors, and businesses in complex civil litigation. His work spans a variety of areas including professional liability, insurance agents and brokers liability, architectural, engineering, and construction defect litigation, miscellaneous professional liability, commercial litigation, insurance coverage and bad faith litigation, intellectual property, technology and media litigation, and consumer financial services litigation.

Before joining the firm, Jared practiced with another Florida-based defense firm, where he represented a range of clients in construction defect, professional liability, and insurance-related matters. He also previously served as an Assistant Public Defender for over 14 years in the Ninth Judicial Circuit, where he tried numerous jury and bench trials and handled a wide variety of felony and misdemeanor cases. His extensive courtroom and trial experience provide a strong foundation for his current litigation practice.

Jared earned his Juris Doctor from the University of Miami School of Law and his Bachelor of Arts from the University of Central Florida. He is admitted to practice law in the State of Florida.

Outside of his legal practice, Jared is actively involved in the Teen Court Program, a juvenile diversion initiative providing youth an alternative to the traditional justice system. He also supports local dog rescues. A lifelong sports enthusiast and devoted Miami Marlins fan, he additionally enjoys reading, exploring Orlando's vibrant community, and spending time at the area's theme parks.
