OVERVIEW

Jackie is a member of the Health Care Liability Practice Group in the King of Prussia office of Marshall Dennehey Warner Coleman and Goggin. Throughout her 16-year career, she has provided legal counsel to physicians, physician practices, nurses, allied health professionals, hospitals and health systems. Jackie handles cases throughout five Pennsylvania counties.

Jackie received her Bachelor of Arts degree and paralegal certificate from Cedar Crest College, where she was also the recipient of the Butz Award as the member of the senior class who exerted the best influence in her college life and association. Jackie worked for defense litigation law firms in Philadelphia before returning to school at the Temple University School of Law. She joined Marshall Dennehey in 1995 as a law clerk, and has remained with the firm since that time.

Jackie currently serves as President of the Montgomery Bar Association, and is an active member of the Women in Law, Medical Legal and Trial Lawyer committees. She previously served as secretary and as a member of the board of directors.
