OVERVIEW
Greg is a member of the Casualty Department and represents clients in construction law, commercial litigation, and product liability litigation involving claims of construction design errors and omission, breach of contract, and product design defects. Additionally, Greg assists clients in state and federal complex and class action litigation related to privacy laws, data security regulations, and telecommunication standards.

Greg also supports securities and financial clients in matters before the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and in responding to regulatory investigations brought by government securities agencies and financial industry self-regulatory bodies.

Greg earned his juris doctor at the University of Pittsburgh School of Law, where he served as Articles Editor for the Journal of Technology Law & Policy and achieved a concentration certificate in International and Comparative Law. During law school, Greg was a visiting research fellow at the Max Planck Institute for Comparative and International Private Law in Hamburg, Germany where he evaluated the implications of new computing technology on international data security laws.

Greg is the recipient of the Pittsburgh School of Law Faculty Award for Excellence in Legal Scholarship, the CALI Excellence for the Future Award in Information Privacy Law, and was awarded Order of the Barristers for his achievements in interscholastic moot courts. Notably, Greg was a participant on the University of Pittsburgh’s 2012 Foreign Direct Investment International Arbitration Competition team where he won the 3rd Place Advocate Award and the 2011-2012 Niagara International Moot Court Competition team where he won the award for Best Advocate.
