OVERVIEW

Jack is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania. Following graduation from college, he attended the Villanova University School of Law, where he earned his juris doctor in 1975. During law school, he clerked for Marshall Dennehey Warner Coleman & Goggin and accepted a full-time position with the firm in 1975. After working as an associate for the firm's founder, Francis Marshall, Jack developed extensive experience in the defense of a wide range of litigation matters such as legal malpractice, arson, liquor liability, motor vehicle, premises, products liability, etc.

Jack has lectured for various organizations such as the Pennsylvania Association of Trial Lawyers. He serves as a judge pro tem for the Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas as well as a mediator for the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Jack is a shareholder of Marshall Dennehey Warner Coleman & Goggin and practices in its General Liability Practice Group.
